“There couldn't be a
better ambassador
for the State of Israel
and the Jewish people.”

BIO

Eve has transformed her lifelong passion for Israel into a vocation via guiding visitors across the country as a licensed Israeli tour guide and through her weekly podcast "Rejuvenation with Eve Harow" with its human interest angle and eclectic interviews. She's also a popular inspirational speaker and scholar in residence in many varied international forums.

As a refreshingly articulate, professional, experienced and educated voice on Israel's past and modern realities, Eve interprets current challenges through the lens of Jewish history, Bible and tradition. Her academic background including an MA in Psychology and extensive international personal and professional travels add to her broad perspective and unique insights.

Eve is the Director of Tourism for the One Israel Fund, on the Board of Governors of Ariel University and the Board of CAMERA's Israel affiliate Presspectiva, a member of the JNF, Mizrahi and Judea and Samaria Speaker's Bureaus and a veteran radio and internet show host. She served for 10 years as councilwoman in Efrat, Gush Etzion, where she and her physician husband raised 7 children.
